Who are we?

We provide free, independent legal advice and support to anybody sharing their experiences with the Royal Commission into Defence and Veteran Suicide.

There is no income or assets test, or other eligibility criteria for assistance.

We have staff across Australia who deliver a trauma-informed service. We are independent of the Royal Commission.

What do we do?

We provide free and confidential legal advice to members of the public, including Australian Defence Force personnel and veterans, their families, carers, and supporters, about:

- taking part in the Royal Commission
- your legal rights when sharing information with the Royal Commission

- available legal protections when sharing information with the Royal Commission.

We can talk to you about how you can:

- share your experiences in a safe way
- keep your experiences and participation in the Royal Commission confidential
- overcome barriers you might face in sharing your experiences.

We can also:

- support you in a private session
- connect you with other services, like counselling, advocacy, and other legal support not related to the Royal Commission.
